The Data Protection Policy, Conditions of Use by InteRed and Cookies Inventory have been updated in July 2020. It is important to read and understand the conditions when browsing or interacting on this website, as the use made of the pages and its services are regulated; and by so doing you are accepting each and every one of the general conditions set out here.

In this section you will find information concerning:

- Who we are.
- The purpose of the website.
- Our Data Protection Policy.
- Who is responsible for the processing of personal data?
- Who is the Data Protection Representative?
- How we have obtained personal details.
- Which personal data we process.
- The use we make of the personal data.
- The reason for using personal data.
- The purpose of processing personal data.
- Your rights.
- When and why we may share your data with third parties.
- Do we make international data transfers?
- For how long do we keep your data?
- Donations and payments through this website.
- Use of Credit cards.
- Direct debit.
- Via Solidarity SMS.
- Tax deductions applicable to your donations.
- Security on SSL certified donation forms.
- Intellectual and industrial property.
- Use of Cookies.
- Responsibilities.
- Duration and Termination
- Modification.
- Jurisdiction
1. Who are we?
The owner of the website is Fundación InteRed (henceforth known as, InteRed).

Our address is C/ Alameda, Nº 22 – 28014 Madrid; and our CIF number is G-80468564, constituted by Public Deed on 19th November 1992 no. 3 998 and recognized and classified by ministerial order, on 26th May 1993, and registered in the Foundations Register of the Ministry of Education and Culture, number 28-0928.

2. The purpose of the Website
The Aim of the website is for InteRed to inform you of activities, news, free and shared publications, along with offering you the opportunity to participate in campaigns, sign petitions, make donations and so on.

You are not permitted to use the website for any illegal activities whatsoever, nor for advertising or commercial purposes, by sending messages under a false identity. You are obliged, in general, to make use of the page under these conditions.

3. Data Protection Policy
Users’ personal data allows us to identify in some way, localise through some medium or contact the user. On this website we request personal information when, for example, making a donation, becoming a member, signing a petition, subscribing to our newsletter, joining a petition with a signature or filling in other registration or enrolment forms.

InteRed is committed to absolute confidentiality in the use of personal information given through the website and we welcome the provisions of Regulation EU 2016 679 of the European Parliament and Council of April 27th, 2016, in order to safeguard the privacy of persons who collaborate with the organisation. Equally we are committed to the Organic Law 3 2018, 5th December, Protection of Personal Data and the guarantee of Digital Rights. (La Ley Orgánica 3/2018, de 5 de diciembre, de Protección de Datos Personales y garantía de los derechos digitales (LOPD-GDD)) This law adapts Spanish law to the provisions set out in the European Union’s Data Protection Rules.

We guarantee and protect users’ Personal Data entered by filling out forms electronically which appear on our website.

3.1 - Who is responsible for the processing of personal data?
The entity responsible for personal data processing is Fundación InteRed (henceforth known as, InteRed).

Our address is C/ Alameda, Nº 22, 28014 Madrid; and our CIF number is G-80468564 constituted by Public Deed on 19th November 1992 no. 3 998 and recognized and classified by ministerial order, on 26th May 1993, and registered in the Foundations Register of the Ministry of Education and Culture, number 28-0928.

3.2- Who is the Data Protection Representative?
Our Data protection Representative is responsible for the diligent compliance of the personal data protection regulations. The representative can be contacted through C/ Alameda, Nº 22 – 28014 Madrid, or by email at rgpd@intered.org.

3.3- How have we obtained your personal details?
Your personal details have been obtained through a previous contact with InteRed, through a current contact that you have with our organisation, as a member or having made a donation to the organisation, having participated in one of our campaigns, having requested information about our campaigns, activities or initiatives, or having taking part in a training workshop or similar activity.

3.4- Which personal details are processed?
The personal details we use, for the legitimate purposes, which will be explained later, are the following:

Personal details necessary to maintain contact with you:

- First Name
- Surname
- DNI or NIE (Identification number)
- Age
- Sex
- Email address
- Telephone contact number
- Postal address
- Economic contribution

It is also possible that we have the following personal details, in the case of you having voluntarily given them during previous relations with us:

- Studies and qualifications
- Number of children
- Profession

We may also use additional personal data which you give us voluntarily in future relations or interaction with InteRed, including those which you send us by use of social networks or other applications. This data depends on your own privacy settings, use of social networks or applications, as well as the privacy policies of each social network or application. We, therefore, recommend you read them carefully, before providing us with data through such social networks or apps.
3.5- What use do we make of your personal data?

The use we make of your personal data relating to maintaining your relationship with InteRed as a donor partner or supporter, is legitimized as and when it is necessary to comply with contractual obligations derived from this relationship.

In order to comply with our mission to defend the universal right to Education throughout a person's lifetime, we use the personal data of our members, donors and sympathisers for the following purposes:

- To send information about InteRed via SMS, telephone or electronic mail, even when the relationship has been terminated, unless the individual specifically states otherwise.
- Request donations, increase membership quotas or other types of participation (signing campaigns etc).
- Invitations to events organised by InteRed.
- Basic activities to build profiles, based on information that you have given us directly, with the purpose of ensuring the proper management of the previous activities.
- In addition, we also process your data for sending, by email, promotional communications about campaign activities and initiatives of a similar nature to those in which you have previously participated, if you have given your consent to this.

The processing of your data for sending information which promotes activities, campaigns and IntRed activities similar to those in which you have already participated, constitutes a legitimate interest of our entity and is authorised under current legislation.

Anyone wishing to refuse this type of information may now, and at any moment, do so by sending an email to rgpd@intered.org, and we shall ensure it is passed on to our Data Protection Officer. Alternatively, the request can be made directly by mail for the attention of the Data Protection Officer, C/ Alameda, Nº 22, 28014 Madrid.

3.6 The use we make of your personal data

In accordance with the applicable regulations of the protection of personal data, and due to our particular concern for the security and confidentiality of your data, InteRed informs you that the collection and processing of personal data aims to manage online requests to InteRed made by users. The legitimacy by which we treat your personal data is through contractual relationship. In order to ensure that your data is always up to date, containing no errors, you should inform us, as soon as possible, of any modifications and rectifications of your personal data which have occurred.

- On becoming a member, or making a donation, we ask you for your personal data, including Identification numbers, in order to send the tax certificate to facilitate deductions in your Tax declaration. Also, your data is used to register you as a member or donor of InteRed, register and keep account of donations, carry out accounting tax and administrative donations management, as well as place direct debit orders in your account when appropriate; at the same time as we use your data to inform you of our activities and to send you our newsletter online.

In addition, we also process your data for sending, by email, promotional communications about campaign activities and initiatives of a similar nature to those in which you have previously participated, if you have given your consent to this.

The non-completion of the required fields which appear in InteRed forms, relating to the one that is particularly indicated on the page where the online form appears, may result in your requests not being addressed.

- When you subscribe to an online newsletter the data which you send will be used to ensure that the requested newsletter arrives and any other news related to InteRed or our activities and campaigns.

In addition, we also process your data to send information of a promotional nature about activities, campaigns and initiatives of a similar nature to ones in which you have already participated and have previously given your consent to.

- When you complete a form to contact InteRed, your data is used solely to respond to that message.

The users ensure the authenticity and updating of data communicated to InteRed. You can also exercise the right of access, rectification, omission, portability, cancellation and opposition, at all times, to the processing of your data via email at the address rgpd@intered.org or by conventional mail to your local headquarters.

3.7- Your rights
You can exercise your rights to access, rectification, suppression, portability, omission, limitation and/or opposition to processing your data by means of the aforementioned email and postal access.

You also have the right to revoke your given consent and request that your personal data is not processed for use in emails, telephone or mobile phone messages or newsletters.

In addition, should you consider that the use of your data violates the rules or your privacy rights, you may file a claim with our Data Protection Officer via the headquarters’ email or by mail:

URL: https://www.intered.org/politica-de-privacidad
E-correo: rgpd@intered.org
3.8- When and why we may share your data with third parties.
We assure you that under no circumstances will your personal data be sold, transferred or communicated to third parties, except in the following circumstances listed below and for the reasons explained below:

- Public administrations for compliance with legal obligations to which InteRed is subjected by its activity. For example, when you become a member or make a donation, we will send your data to the tax administration including the amount of your contributions so that you can claim tax deductions for your monetary contributions.
- Those assignments to third parties that are necessary to comply with obligations arising from campaigns, activities and initiatives where you voluntarily participate. For example, if you take part in a campaign or sign a petition we may communicate some of your personal data to entities (governments, banks, administrations, companies, or other bodies) who are the objective of the action.
- Providers who need access to your data for the provision of services that InteRed contracted from such suppliers (the magazine cover, memoriam, member management) and with whom InteRed has signed confidentiality contracts for the processing of necessary and required personal data regulations to protect your privacy.
- If you are a member or donor your data will be shared with the bank for the charge of your donations, to the handling company so the magazine can reach your home, to the electronic data transfer company for our online news, to the telemarketing company to inform you of activities or propose your participation in activities or campaigns.
- If you subscribe to our enewsletter your data will be shared with the electronic data-transfer company to send you the enewsletter and any other related news of InteRed activities.
- If you are a volunteer your data will be given to the insurance company to manage the obligatory volunteer insurance etc.
- If you start work with InteRed, a provider will process your data for the execution of the management of your payslips etc.

3.9- Do we make international data transfers?
InteRed has contracted services from technology providers located in countries that do not have regulations equivalent to that of Europe (Third parties). Such suppliers have subscribed with InteRed confidentiality and treatment of contracts, data required by regulations for locally located suppliers in Third Countries applying the safeguards and safeguards necessary to preserve your privacy.

- Such suppliers are affiliated with the Privacy Shield, as is the case of MailChimp: https://mailchimp.com/legal/privacy/
- For more information about privacy guarantees you can contact the Data Protection Officer via the aforementioned postal and email addresses.
3.10- For how long do we keep your data?
Your personal data is kept whilst you maintain a relationship with InteRed, and at the completion of that relationship for whatever reason, and during the legal limitation periods which are applicable. In this case they will be treated for the purposes of accreditation complying with our legal or contractual obligations. At the end of these limitation periods your data will be deleted or alternatively anonymized.

4. Donations and payments through this website.
You can choose the quantity and regularity of the donation on the web page forms enabled for this purpose. Through the forms you will be able to make donations to InteRed in different ways.

- making one-off donations in which you contribute a single amount at a time
- becoming a member in which you contribute a fee through Direct Debit to your IBAN number or bank account (this can be monthly, three-monthly, six-monthly or yearly).

The one-off payments can be made using different forms of payment:

4.1 Credit card
Through the online virtual pos payment system (TVP virtual), you connect to the secure web payment system provided by Banco Sabadell. On the screen your credit or debit card details will be requested: Credit card number and expiry date. The virtual pos page (TVP virtual) has the security protocol, SSL (Security Lockets Layer) to ensure the integrity and confidentiality of the information provided.

4.2 By Direct Debit
By this means you need to provide us with your IBAN. The IBAN is the identification number of your bank account. This number usually appears on your savings card or in the private area of your online banking service. InteRed will give the order to our banking entity which will make the charge to your account, of the amount and payment periods to be made, through the website donation or membership form on the web page.

4.3 Via Solidarity SMS
If you wish to make a donation via mobile phone you have the option to do so via SMS number 28014 belonging to the group CNMC - Comisión Nacional de los Mercados y la Competencia - which is established as "solidarity ranges of donation".

The SMS service is operated by Altiria TIC (www.altiria.com) and la Asociación Española de Fundraising (www.aefundraising.org). It is valid for the following operators: Movistar, Vodafone, Orange, Yoigo y Euskaltel.

All you have to do is send INTERED to 28014 and you will make a direct donation of 1,20 €.
Occasionally InteRed may also use the Solidarity SMS number 38014 which makes a direct donation of 6 € for InteRed and under the same conditions as 28014.

On sending the SMS you automatically enter the InteRed data base accepting the same conditions and authorizing InteRed to use your data to make contact with you via telephone or electronic mail.

When collaborating by using an SMS, on sending a text message with the given word to 28014 or 38014, you will receive a free message thanking you for your collaboration with InteRed and giving you the opportunity to continue to do so as well as how to unsubscribe from that database. In order to send an SMS to either of the numbers (28014 or 38014) you need to have the SMS Premium service active. The full cost of the message (1.20 €. or 6 €.) goes to InteRed and is valid for Movistar, Vodafone, Orange, Yoigo y Euskaltel. In sending an SMS the person collaborating by sending the message is thereby accepting the Personal Data Protection Policy of InteRed and therefore authorising the organisation to use that data to make contact through different channels of communication on issues relating to our solidarity activity.

4.4 Tax deductions applicable to your donations.

As a member or as a donor with InteRed you are entitled to to deduct your donations in your annual tax declaration. The Official State Bulletin published the Royal Decree Law 17 2020 of May 5 (El Boletín Oficial del Estado publicó el Real Decreto-ley 17/2020, de 5 de mayo) approving tax measures and increasing tax deductions in the IRPF to address the economic and social impact of Covid 19. Article 19 of the Patronage Law (Ley de Mecenazgo) has been amended including an increase in tax deductions for donations to NGOs for individuals resident in Spain. This change has an impact on donations made from January 1st 2020.

Individual deductions (click here)
Legal entities deductions (click here)

4.5 Our Refund Policy

Due to the nature of the organisation (NGO) InteRed makes no refunds of the amount of donations received either in whole or in part.

4.7 Security of Donation forms

We are concerned about security and we guarantee your payments made through our website. The https functionality has been implemented on membership and donation forms in order to protect financial economic data with encryption tools and SSL certification.

Our security and privacy policies are reviewed periodically and improved as and when deemed necessary. Only authorised personnel of InteRed have access to users’ information.
5. Intellectual and Industrial Property
The whole of this website www.intered.org: logos, text, images, graphic drawings, buttons, colour combinations, as well as the structure of ordering and presenting the contents, is protected by Intellectual Property Law, which prohibits the reproduction, distribution and transformation, except in the case of private or personal use; for public dissemination purposes, InteRed authorization is required.

Limits on the reproduction of the contents of the InteRed website:
- The contents of the website may be used for commercial purposes.
- The contents of the website may not be reproduced in works whose content is contrary to legal norms, can be considered immoral, may damage or undermine the image of InteRed.
- The content may not be altered or transformed in any way.
- No item, derived from the website, which may cause confusion as to the ownership of such work, or the owner's relationship with InteRed may be created or generated.

6. Cookies
This cookie policy is an integral part of the Legal Notice of this privacy policy (from hereon in known as the "Website")

In order to facilitate your browsing of the website FUNDACIÓN INTERED (from hereon in known as INTERED) NIF number G - 80468564 registered office at C/ Alameda, 22, 28014, Madrid and email for privacy purposes at rgpd.intered.org, communicates that it uses cookies or other files of similar functionality (from hereon in known as Cookies).

In any case we inform you that the provider is responsible for the Cookies and the process for the data obtained through the same Cookies and third parties deciding on the content purpose and use of the processing of the information collected.

We want your experience on this website to be the best possible and therefore this website uses its own and third-party cookies.

What is a Cookie?
Cookies are small text files which your browser stores on your computer's hard drive which are necessary to use our website. They are used for better understanding of how our website is used, to be able to improve the browsing process and the contents that we can offer you.

Cookies serve many purposes such as, allowing you to navigate between pages efficiently, remembering your preferences, and in general to improve your user experience.

In the case of your not wishing to receive Cookies you can set up your internet browser to erase them from your computer's hard drive, or to block them, or to notify you in the case of their installation.
How InteRed uses Cookies.
By accepting the Cookie notice that appears at the initiation of browsing the website, or by setting Cookies, the user has expressly accepted the use of such cookies on their device. If you disable the Cookies, it is possible that some of the services available on the website will not function correctly. InteRed is using Cookies specifically for the purposes set out below. If at any time in the future we use other Cookies, in order to provide more and better services, the user will be informed.

What types of Cookies are they?

According to their origin:

- Our own: these are the cookies generated by the website itself that is being visited
- Third party: These are Cookies that are received when browsing a website but are not generated by the owner of the website, but by another entity that processes the data obtained through Cookies. Within this category analytical Cookies are included, and those used by external content add-ons, which are necessary for the user to be able to access content or services provided by third-party providers such as, for example, videos hosted on Youtube or geographic locations on Google maps.

How long do they remain active?

Session Cookies: These are a type of Cookie designed to collect and store data while the user accesses a website. They are not registered in the user's terminal on leaving the website.

Continuous Cookies: These are a type of Cookie where the data is still stored in the terminal and can be accessed and processed for a period defined by the person responsible for the Cookie, this may range from a few minutes to several years.

Depending on their purpose:

Technical Cookies: These are Cookies which are strictly necessary for the provision of certain services expressly requested by the user. Should you disable these Cookies, you will not receive the contents and services offered on our website correctly.

Analytical Cookies: These Cookies allow statistical monitoring and analysis of the behavior of all users on our website, gathering and providing anonymous information. This information helps us to improve the working of the website.

Behavioural Cookies: These allow the management of advertising spaces according to the user’s specific profile.
Types of Cookies used by InteRed:
A. OUR OWN COOKIES

Type of Cookies: Session Cookies
These last only for the duration of your visit and are erased when the browser closes. Their main purpose is to identify the type of device, and to support website security or its basic functionality. They do not contain personal information which could identify a person.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Holder</th>
<th>Purpose</th>
<th>Expiration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LFR_SESSION_STATE</td>
<td>InteRed</td>
<td>Necessary for authentication or identification of the registered person</td>
<td>Duration of Session</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>JSESSIONID</td>
<td>InteRed</td>
<td>Management of the login and use of the website.</td>
<td>Duration of Session</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Type of Cookie: Technical Cookies
Technical Cookies are essential for you to be able to move around a website and use its features. In general, these cookies enable the different functions of the website, make your browsing safer or provide functionalities that have been previously requested by you. Being necessary for the operation of the website, these default cookies are enabled and you will not be able to refuse them. They offer services which the user would expect to access the website, such as, for example the browsing of web pages, or access to secure areas of the website.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Holder</th>
<th>Purpose</th>
<th>Expiration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Cookie_Support</td>
<td>InteRed</td>
<td>Makes browsing a website easier and stores user-selected preferences.</td>
<td>1 year</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Guest_Language_ID</td>
<td>InteRed</td>
<td>Stores a language value for the website.</td>
<td>1 year</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ajs_group_id</td>
<td>InteRed</td>
<td>Stores information about the user's preferences for recognition when you revisit the website.</td>
<td>1 year</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Ajs_user_id</td>
<td>InteRed</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Anonymous_user_id</td>
<td>InteRed</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
B. THIRD PARTY COOKIES:
These are cookies installed by a website which is not the one you are visiting; for example, those used by social media (such as Facebook) or external add-ons (like Google Maps). Some advertising companies use such files to track visits at every site where they are advertised.

Type of Cookie: Analytical Cookies
These collect data from your activity through Google Analytics, a free web analysis tool which allows InteRed to learn how users interact with our website. It enables Cookies in the domain of the site you are on, and uses Cookies to collect information anonymously and produce reports about your use of the website and measurement of traffic parameters within the site itself.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Holder</th>
<th>Purpose</th>
<th>Expiration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>_GAT</td>
<td>Google Analytics</td>
<td>controls the rate of requests on the website and differentiates between the different tracking objects created in the session.</td>
<td>Duration of Session</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>_GID</td>
<td>Google Analytics</td>
<td>Identifies the same user for 1 day.</td>
<td>1 day</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>_GA</td>
<td>Google Analytics</td>
<td>Identifies and distinguishes a user storing a unique client ID that is generated randomly allows the calculation of interactions with the website.</td>
<td>Duration of Session</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Type of Cookie: Cookies used by external content add-ons
These are necessary for the user to access YouTube videos hosted on our website.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Name</th>
<th>Holder</th>
<th>Purpose</th>
<th>Expiration</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>IDE</td>
<td>Google Doubleclick</td>
<td>Advertising Cookie. It targets advertising based on content that is relevant to the user, improves campaign performance reports and avoids showing ads that the user has already seen.</td>
<td>2 years</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>VISITOR_INFO01_LIVE</td>
<td>YouTube</td>
<td>Registers unique identification to collect statistical information about visits to Youtube videos.</td>
<td>6 months 8 months</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>PREF</td>
<td>YouTube</td>
<td></td>
<td>Session duration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>YSC</td>
<td>YouTube</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GPS</td>
<td>YouTube</td>
<td>Registers a unique identification on mobile devices to allow tracking based on geographic location by GPS</td>
<td>Session duration.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

At InteRed we also use the following providers to manage these Cookies. We have attached a link to their websites to give you more information about the use that is made of your personal data.

FACEBOOK https://www.facebook.com/policies/cookies/
GOOGLE https://policies.google.com/technologies/cookies?hl=es

How can I disable Cookies?
InteRed, in compliance with current legal regulations make the information available to you that allows you to set up your internet browser to maintain your privacy and security in relation to cookies. In this way, we provide the information and links to the official support sites of major browsers so you can decide whether or not you want to accept the use of cookies.

You can block the Cookies through the browser's configuration tools or set your browser to alert you when a server wants to save a Cookie.

- Chrome: https://support.google.com/accounts/answer/61416?hl=es
- Analytical Cookies: To disable these Cookies click on the following link: https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=es
- Cookies used by external content add-ons: To disable these Google y YouTube Cookies, click on the following link: https://policies.google.com/privacy#infochoices

The disabling of these cookies will make it impossible to access and view the videos posted on the web.

7.- Responsibilities
InteRed will not be directly or subsidiarily responsible for:

- the quality of service, speed of access, proper functioning, availability nor continuity of operation of the website.
- illegitimate intrusions through the use of malicious programs of any type through any means of communication.
• security or navigation errors caused by a browser malfunction or for the use of out-of-date versions.
• In the case of Third Parties, breaking the established security measures, access or use of messages for the referral of computer viruses.
• the realization of any kind of unlawful action detrimental, harmful and/or harmful to rights.

8.- Duration y termination
The duration of the present conditions of the Use and Privacy Policy is indefinite. However, InteRed can terminate or suspend the accessibility of any of the content offered on the website.

9.- Modification
InteRed may modify the content of these Terms of Use and Privacy Policy at any time, in order to adapt it to future legislative or technological changes. These modifications will be considered to have been effectively notified since being valid from the moment of publication on the web. These Terms of Use and Privacy Policy were updated in July 2020.

10.- Jurisdiction
In the event of controversy or conflict that may arise from the interpretation or compliance with these general conditions, they will be resolved before the Tribunales y Juzgados (in the Courts) of Madrid, Spain.